Welcome

TO IRLAM STATION

Irlam Station is more than just a modern rail transport facility, as well as our vibrant café bar and being a fully functioning social and business venue, we boast a fully licensed wedding package bespoke to each individual couple. We are here to take care of all the planning and take all the stress out of organising such a special day allowing you to soak up the atmosphere and simply take a deep breath and enjoy the day with your soon to be life partner.

We understand that each wedding is unique with your own wishes and visions for that special day, and with the help of our enthusiastic staff and several prior wedding meetings from our wedding team we will make your special day as perfect as you dreamed of, minus the hassle.

Set in a Victorian styled train station building in Irlam, it provides you with the best setting for any size of wedding whether it's a small intimate gathering or that grand day of up to 150 people, we offer room hire to meet the needs of any occasion. Exclusive use of the Station meaning the whole building is yours for the whole day is offered at a set rate which can be discussed prior the event.

On initial enquiry your details will be passed to one of our wedding planning team, who will work with you through a course of face to face meetings making the process more friendly and getting to know you and your partner to make it more of a personal feel to the process, to get all the fine tuning taken care of to make sure we get a clear plan of your day set in stone and bespoke our packages for your budgets.

Working alongside Salford registrar office we offer the full licensed wedding ceremony in the Cheshire Lines room on the 1st floor or the Coal-yard on the ground floor, our team will set the room up before hand, once the ceremony is complete we will move your guests into the Mezzanine area or area for celebration drinks, whilst we work our magic and turn the room into the relaxed and perfect setting for your wedding after party.

We offer a wide range of in house catering options from a elegant cold buffet selection to a summer BBQ set up, tailoring your food package to meet your budget. A full list of catering options is available on request, along with a fully licensed bar offering a range of wines, beers, spirits and soft drinks something for everyone.

We welcome all questions and are happy to work with your suggestions giving you the best experience with the aid of our trained team in-house.
